Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Private Investigator Michael "Mickey" Ross is again involved in a series of investigations generated by his new business Yankee Investigations. He has two new employees, his old NYPD partner's son and a retired cop from the Armonk P.D. During this episode he is asked by a wealthy, Wall Street, stockbroker to find his kidnapped son without going to the police. The adrenaline pumps are running full force as Ross and his partners become involved the situation after an attempt is made to rob a local bank. Ross continues to spend any extra hours at his summer home in the Hampton's but is called back to work by his partners to handle those special investigations that he insists on being a part of. A plane goes down in the reservoir and Ross tries his best to help the pilot. He is forced to call upon his friend in the mafia to help him find "The Loon." The Loon, belongs to the Chicago based outfit. He has been moving drugs for the mafia for the past two decades and when the New York mafia tangles with the Chicago outfit The Loon is right in the middle of it and so is Ross. This episode involves kidnapping, murder, smuggling and narcotics. Ross's life is threatened by The Loon who is possessed with a burning vendetta to kill Ross. The story travels from the banks of the Hudson River in rural upstate New York to the Atlantic shoreline of Southampton Long Island and as far south as Key West, Florida. Although he was supposed to be retired Ross just couldn't give up the thrill of the chase and cherry picked the cases from his office that might involve a...
